Several of the boys have been practicing pole vaulting, hurling the discus, pulling the shot, etc. They have been much delayed in this practice on account of the late arrival of the goods.

There are new pupils enrolling every day in nearly every department. The Northeastern extends a hearty welcome to all and hopes they will be much benefitted by their coming here.

Four small girls of the kindergarten department sang quite an interesting little song in chapel one morning last week. It was greatly enjoyed by all. The little tots deserve much credit for their effort.

President Redd made a pleasure and business trip combined to Guthrie the other day and while there attended the banquet given to the presidents of the state institutions of learning and other men prominent in educational affairs.

Cards have been distributed among the Normal students with proper blanks to be filled out to indicate the church affiliation of each student. The moral and religious sides of the students' lives are being looked after, as well as the educational.

A very entertaining football game, attended by a very large crowd, was played upon our grounds October 23, between Jones Academy and the Cherokee Seminary, resulting in the score of 10 to 0 in favor of the Jones Academy. The game was clean and fast. The Jones boys outweighed the Seminary boys which, perhaps, gave the victory to the Jones boys.

POKER FINANCE.

Mose Coonley (a winner)—"Guess I'll cash in, boys."
Abe Mokeby (also to the good)—"Guess I'll do de same."
Jefferson Yallerby—"Me too!"
Bill Bingy (the banker, a big doser)—"Well, I guess yo' each done got anuddeh guess a-comin', gen'lemen! Ownin' to dis heah attempted and un-called-so' run on de bank, de instertootion am now suspended an' won't resume oppyrations till de panicky feelin' hab fully subsided an' de foolish depositoris continues doin' business as foohmahly. And it's youah deal, Mose Coonley!"
