B. Foreman says woman suffrage would be an uncertain thing. He has doubtless had experience lately.

Miss George plays a new march in chapel, and the choir sings a new song. Student body looks more cheerful.

A certain young lady thinks Patterson Scott looks "cuter" on the field than off. "'Tis distance lends enchantment."

Miss Siegle is very encouraged with the work her art class is doing, and says she expects to send out some real artists.

Suggestion—That some of the boys abandon Paderewskian style of hair dressing and come to class with well combed pates.

Professor Clark forgot to make an announcement this morning about the foot ball squad. We hope this will not occur again.

Lost—In Okmulgee, a heart, very large and battle scarred. Finder please return to Dr. Peterson's office and receive a liberal reward.

Professor Logan was a victim of hysterics a few weeks ago, but we are glad to learn that he has his Latin classes straightened now, and is much better.

Hogan Markham expresses himself rather strongly as to the way he would like to treat a certain ball team. All necessary arrangements will be made.

Found—A melodious male voice floating down the corridor during the fourth period on last Thursday. The owner can have the same by calling at room No. 18.

We would be grateful for any information as to how long Prof. Cain is going to give his Psychology class exercise by having them take daily walks through the president's office.

The students hope that E. B. Markham has recovered his Physics manual and text book, and thereby given President Redd a chance to make some other announcements in chapel.

The Glee Club will give an entertainment some time in the near future, introducing specialties never heard before. Do not tear up the seats. Bricks and eggs will be passed around by the ushers.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. T. has a severe attack of heart trouble. He has the sympathy of the entire student body as well as that of the faculty, in his great affliction. In way of consolation some students have been kind enough to give their experiences with the request that their names be withheld.

Arthur Adair wishes to sing, "Where the Cabbages Soar," and Miss Cannon, "My Love Has Lumbago," some morning in chapel. We appreciate their kind offers to assist in the chapel exercises and hope we will have the pleasure of hearing them before long. The audience may safely keep their seats on this occasion as the other members of the Glee Club will not be allowed to sing in this number.
