BULLETIN OF GENERAL INFORMATION RELATING TO SUMMER TERM

Opening May 27 and Closing on July 19

Summer Term opens May 27th. Enrollment begins preceding Friday. Term will run for eight weeks, closing July 19th. Sessions will be held six days per week.

Tuition Fees are charged only to such students as live outside of the state and who do not expect to teach in the school.

Continuing Fee of $2.00 is required of each pupil, this fee to entitle the student to free entrance into all lecture numbers and into all athletic events.

Board may be had at good houses in town at rates ranging from $4.50 to $8.50 per week.

Room for Light Housekeeping may be had at various places over town at prices ranging from $3.50 to $15.00 per month. Write Prof. Hackler.

Correspondence Courses will not be offered during the summer term.

A Cafeteria will be run at the Normal Club building for the benefit of students desiring wholesome lunches at a minimum cost.

Northeastern's Campus, set with a heavy sward of bluegrass and cress and adorned with native trees, flower borders, and splendid flowering shrubs, is the scene of delightful visits in the Southwest for summer study.

A Summer Chautauqua, of five days, two programs each day, will afford its annual treat to students. The big tent will be on the Norrun: their ability to teach. In most cases moved to what was formerly the as-tare e to will be organized. A Special Lecture by an approved high school or college.

The Faculty of the Northeastern State Normal is made up of men and women who have been chosen for their ability to teach. In most cases they are holders of undergraduate and post-graduate degrees from the best colleges and universities in America.

Certification, grades made at the Normal apply on county certificates in lieu of examinations grades, having completed a four-year course, 58 credits, including psychology, pedagogy, psychology, and agriculture, the student may receive a state certificate of the rank of first grade, good for two years. Having finished the entire course of six years, two years above the high school, the student receives a diploma which serves as a permanent state teacher's certificate.

Special One-Year Certificate. A student who has a resident attendance of two terms and has a total of not less than 24 credits, including the English, mathematics, history, music, drawing and penmanship required for the first two years, together with three credits in general science or in physiology and agriculture, and two credits in pedagogy, may receive a certificate valid in any county in the state and of equal value to a third grade certificate.

Private Lessons in Music may be had from a skilled teacher who has studio in the building. Tuition $1 per month.

The Normal Library has been moved to what was formerly the oscially hall. The library is supplied with the best current magazines, with newspapers and with general reference works for the different departments.

Gable Athletic Field will be at the disposal of all who are athletically inclined.

The New Bath House will have apartments for both men and women, complete with toilet, shower, and hot water taps, in free to all students.

The New Auditorium with a seating capacity of 800 will come into use beginning with the spring term. This is a fireproof structure and adds much to the convenience of the school, as well as to the appearance of the campus.

A Commercial Department has recently been opened with courses offered in shorthand, typewriting, bookkeeping and other commercial subjects. These courses are free to all students.

The Training School, in charge of a director and four competent. . .

teacher much valuable training in practice teaching, making out of lea-planes, general methods, plans for organization, and playground supervision.

Efficiency is our watchword. It is a matter of pride with us that our pupils make good as teachers. It is for this reason that we are unable to supply the demand made upon us by both city and rural schools for trained teachers.

The Normal is a part of Tahlequah, and from within will adthe state and from without will add-picturesqueness of its location. Situated in the foothills of the Ouachita mountains, it is often said that Tahlequah enjoys a more beautiful locale than any other town in the state.

The Normal campus is generally pronounced to be without a rival anywhere in the Southwest. Its beautiful slopes, shaded with the splendid forest trees, which alone itself understands how to cre-ate, its many flower beds and borders, as well as the bold flowing springs, which everyone thinks of as a part of Tahlequah, all combine to render Northeastern one of the most pleasant places imaginable for summer study.

The one thing which invariably impresses visitors with Tahlequah is the picturesque beauty of the area.

Picturesque Scenery In and Around Tahlequah

The landscape surrounding Tahlequah is most beautiful and picturesque, with its rolling hills, picturesque valleys, and lovely streams. The town itself is situated on the banks of the Arkansas River, which flows through a scenic gorge just outside the city limits.

The surrounding countryside is dotted with small towns and villages, each with its own unique charm and character. The area is known for its abundant wildlife, including deer, elk, and bear, as well as its rich agricultural heritage.

The town of Tahlequah is home to several interesting landmarks, including the Tahlequah Courthouse, which is one of the oldest and most beautiful courthouses in Oklahoma. The courthouse is located in the heart of the town and is a popular tourist attraction.

In addition to its natural beauty, Tahlequah is also known for its rich cultural heritage. The town is home to several Native American tribes, including the Cherokee, Muscogee, and Creek nations, and the area is rich in Native American history and culture.

The town is also home to several museums, including the Cherokee Heritage Center, which is dedicated to preserving the history and culture of the Cherokee people. The museum features a variety of exhibits and programs that celebrate the rich history of the Cherokee nation.

Overall, Tahlequah is a wonderful place to visit, with its stunning natural beauty, rich cultural heritage, and friendly locals, it is a perfect destination for anyone looking to experience the beauty of Oklahoma.