Following is a complete list of the members of the faculty:

N. E. S. N. FACULTY.

J. E. Arendell, Dept. of Education.
J. M. Hackler, Dept. of Mathematics.
L. M. Logan, Dept. of Language.
A. L. Charlton, Dept. of Physics and Chemistry.
John N. McIlwraith, Dept. of History and athletic coach.

B. J. Wells, Dept. of English.
C. W. Prier, Dept. of Biology.
C. P. Lybarger, Manual Training.
Grace Fernandes, Dept. of Domestic Science.

Jessie Williams, Dept. of Art.
Ruby Hubbard, Dept. of Expression.

Kathleen Hughes, Dept. of Music.
Fay Sparks, Penmanship.

Florence McMurry, 7th and 8th Grade Critic.

Esther Robinson, 1st and 2nd Grade Critic.

Flora Allison, Registrar.

Governor Robertson is one of the best friends the educational institutions of Oklahoma have ever had. He has no favorites, but is equally solicitous of the progress of all. The same is true of every other interest of the state. He loves Oklahoma with such a deep and unselfish devotion that he gives the best that is in him to her good. No apology is necessary for what he has done in the first two years of his administration and we feel sure that none will be necessary for what he does in the two years that are to come. The true citizenship of Oklahoma has an absolute faith in him.

Prof. J. N. McIlwraith, of Bridgewater, Mass., who has been a student of Columbia and Harvard, will add strength to the Northeastern faculty. Prof. McIlwraith comes not only highly recommended for work in History and allied subjects, but is very enthusiastic in athletics.

Prof. J. E. Arendell, of Phillips University, Enid, Okla., comes fully prepared to take charge of the work in Education. His college attainments are first class and he is a man of experience in the work. He has been in school work in Oklahoma for a number of years.

Prof. B. J. Wells comes from Clemson College, Clemson, S. C. He is a graduate of South Carolina University and of Peabody, and has done some post graduate work in the University of Virginia. We feel that in securing Prof. Wells the English department will be well provided for.

Miss Ruby Hubbard is an Oklahoma, but a graduate of the McCurtry School of Expression. Boston, Mass., will have charge of the department of expression. This is the first time for several years that the school has had a professor in this department and we feel sure from the work that she did the past summer that she will build up this department to one of the strongest in the school. We trust that many will take work under Miss Hubbard.

Miss Kathleen Hughes, of Oklahoma City, will have charge of the Public School Music. Miss Hughes is a young lady with an exceptional good voice. We look forward to some very fine musical work in the school under the direction of Miss Hughes.

The wife of our Governor of Oklahoma is a woman that everyone delights to honor. Her brilliant mind, quick wit and ways so sweet, true and unselfish, make her the best fitting helpmate that a man could have.

Fay Sparks, Penmanship.

The many trips that they have made over the state and to the distant parts of our country, Mrs. Robertson has endeared herself to people everywhere. The Eastern part of Oklahoma is proud to claim her as a home product. She knows their ways, has been raised among them, has seen this country grow and develop and has its every interest at heart. In her visit to Tahlequah she made many, many warm friends.

Governor and Mrs. Robertson visit Northeastern.

At night Gov. Robertson spoke to the town people, and student body at the auditorium. It was a splendid speech of great educational value, a keen Hughes, with her beautiful review of the resources of the great state of Oklahoma, as continually revealed to him in his travels to all parts of the state, the equipment and needs of our educational institutions and the methods of handling the elementary institutions.

At the close of his speech a reception was given to Gov. and Mrs. Robertson in the main building of N. E. S. N.

The beautiful old building, with its quaint architecture and arched windows was lighted from end to end with rose shaded lights and a welcome fire crackled in the great fire-place in the reception hall, where the reception line, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Ford, Gov. and Mrs. Robertson, Congressman Hastings, Mrs. W. T. Ford. The citizens of Tahlequah were out in force to meet them. Col. T. J. Adair, a member of the to meet the Governor and his wife and to bid them welcome to Tahlequah. In the girl's reception room the doors were thrown open in progress, between Nowata and N. E. S. N.

Governor and Mrs. J. B. A. Robertson arrived in Tahlequah Friday to be Reid and Mr. and Mrs. Logan, was the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ford, Gov. and Mrs. Robertson, Congressman Hastings, Mrs. W. T. Ford. The citizens of Tahlequah were out in force to meet them. Col. T. J. Adair, a member of the to meet the Governor and his wife and to bid them welcome to Tahlequah. In the girl's reception room the doors were thrown open in progress, between Nowata and N. E. S. N.

At night Gov. Robertson spoke to the town people, and student body at the auditorium. It was a splendid speech of great educational value, a keen Hughes, with her beautiful review of the resources of the great state of Oklahoma, as continually revealed to him in his travels to all parts of the state, the equipment and needs of our educational institutions and the methods of handling the elementary institutions.

At the close of his speech a reception was given to Gov. and Mrs. Robertson in the main building of N. E. S. N.

The beautiful old building, with its quaint architecture and arched windows was lighted from end to end with rose shaded lights and a welcome fire crackled in the great fire-place in the reception hall, where the reception line, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Ford, Gov. and Mrs. Robertson, Congressman Hastings, Mrs. W. T. Ford. The citizens of Tahlequah were out in force to meet them. Col. T. J. Adair, a member of the to meet the Governor and his wife and to bid them welcome to Tahlequah. In the girl's reception room the doors were thrown open in progress, between Nowata and N. E. S. N.

At night Gov. Robertson spoke to the town people, and student body at the auditorium. It was a splendid speech of great educational value, a keen Hughes, with her beautiful review of the resources of the great state of Oklahoma, as continually revealed to him in his travels to all parts of the state, the equipment and needs of our educational institutions and the methods of handling the elementary institutions.

At the close of his speech a reception was given to Gov. and Mrs. Robertson in the main building of N. E. S. N.

The beautiful old building, with its quaint architecture and arched windows was lighted from end to end with rose shaded lights and a welcome fire crackled in the great fire-place in the reception hall, where the reception line, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Ford, Gov. and Mrs. Robertson, Congressman Hastings, Mrs. W. T. Ford. The citizens of Tahlequah were out in force to meet them. Col. T. J. Adair, a member of the to meet the Governor and his wife and to bid them welcome to Tahlequah. In the girl's reception room the doors were thrown open in progress, between Nowata and N. E. S. N.