

Special Borrower/Guest Computer Usage Policy

NSU John Vaughan Library

I am applying for borrowing and computer use privileges at the NSU library and will comply with all of its rules, including the NSU Computer Policy, to pay fines and damages posted at the Business Office promptly, and to give immediate notice of a change of address. Items are subject to recall for NSU student, faculty, staff or ILL use. Special borrowers may also be asked to relinquish computer terminals. Limited printing is available for files saved to one of the library's portable drives only at 10 cents per black and white and 25 cents per color. Due to the limited numbers, computer stations will be checked out to patrons for ONE hour at a time, with a maximum of 2 hours each day, excepting Government Documents research patrons. All guests MUST AGREE to the following terms:

- The name I provide is not false; I have shown my ID upon signing this form.
- I will not violate any law, statute, ordinance, or regulation.
- I will not be threatening or harassing.
- I will not access sites deemed to be obscene or to contain child pornography.
- I will not violate any third party's copyright, patent, or trademark.
- I will not attempt to access any data or system for which I am not authorized.
- I will not introduce any viruses that may damage the computer, data, or personal information.

Guests are expected to exhibit appropriate behavior at the library. They must be respectful to students, faculty, staff, and other guests. In the case of violation of Library Rules or NSU Computer Policy, a guest will lose borrowing or computer privileges or will be asked to leave and future access to the library will be restricted or denied. In certain cases, the issue may be turned over to campus authorities.
